

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Removal goods from outside the E.C.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Import declaration (customs form C3). • Inventory of the goods detailing contents of all cartons. 	Duty free entry in the following circumstances : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The importer must have had his normal home outside the EC for at least 12 months and must be transferring his normal home to the E.C. to take up permanent residence. • The goods must have been in the possession and use of the importer for at least 6 months in the country where he had his normal home, and must be tax paid. • The goods must be tax/VAT paid at the place of purchase. • The owner must have arrived in the E.C. before customs clearance can take place, and the goods must arrive within 12 months of the arrival of the owner. • The owner may send belongings or a vehicle in advance of his arrival no more than 6 months before he moves or return to the EC. (unless occupational commitments have forced him to leave his normal home outside the EC before being able to move to the EC as intended – in which case an appropriate extension will be allowed.) Security for duty and tax may be requested. Security will be discharged when customer arrives and can prove he qualifies for the relief. • The owner must retain the goods for personal use for at least 12 months. The 12 month restriction period on the same or disposal of the belongings or vehicle will start on the date they arrive and are granted relief. • No duty/VAT allowance is given in respect of alcoholic drink, tobacco or tools of trade. 	The owner of the goods must complete a Customs Form C3, which can be done prior to arrival of shipment, but the date of arrival in the E.C. must be given. The shipment cannot be Customs cleared before the arrival of the owner in the E.C. Shipments can be removed under bond to an H.M. CUSTOMS APPROVED DEPOSITORY, for storage until arrival of the owner in the E.C. (Some BAR members have such depositories). H.M. Customs have given special agreement that Removal goods destined to any E.C. country can be imported into the U.K. on completion of the customs form C3 and compliance with other requirements, including payment of any duties and VAT. The goods can then be moved freely throughout the E.C. If foodstuffs are mentioned on the inventory without precise details, Port Health Authorities may stop and unload the container at port and all foodstuffs will be checked prior to release. This will obviously increase costs to the customers and increase the risk of damage to effects. This issue can be alleviated by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attach a full, itemised list of foodstuffs included in the shipment along with the inventory list. • Advise clients that there are restrictions on foodstuffs and advise against shipping these items. It is important to note that only dried/tinned non-perishable food stuffs are allowed into the U.K.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Diplomats' removals	Application form C426 to be completed by Embassy/High Commission and lodged with Customs by the agent.	Duty free entry.	It is necessary to know the marks and numbers of the packages in which the goods are travelling, the ship's name, date and port of arrival.
Students	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Same documentation as Removal Goods but in addition to C3 declaration. • Letter from University, College, or Polytechnic certifying the importer is a "student" giving residential period of educational course.
Wedding trousseaux - from outside the E.C.	Separate declaration on customs form C3.	Wedding trousseaux and similar articles, wedding gifts may be imported duty/VAT free where it can be shown that : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The newly wed (or shortly to be married) individual must have had his/her normal home outside the E.C. for at least 12 months and be transferring his/her home to the E.C. • The goods must be tax paid at country of origin. • The goods must arrive in the U.K. up to 2 months before the wedding, not later than 4 months after, and must be retained for personal use for at least 1 year. A duty deposit must be paid where goods arrive before the wedding or where proof cannot be provided to Customs Authorities of the wedding details. No gift must exceed £800 in value per donor. • No allowance for alcoholic drink, or tobacco is given. • The owner must retain the goods for personal use for at least 12 months.
Inheritance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customs notice 368 with attached Customs form C1421. • Certified copy of the Will of the deceased or a certified relevant extract there from 	Duty free entry if, the legatee is permanently domiciled in the E.C. and he will not use the goods for trade or business purposes.	At least 2 months before the arrival of the goods a special application must be made to Customs. The goods should not be dispatched until the Customs have given authority for duty free entry.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	or copy of Probate from the Court if the deceased died interstate. An English translation is necessary if document is not in English. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inventory (if the copy Will or other document does not specifically detail the goods to be imported) with supporting declaration from the Lawyer confirming that the goods to be imported are the legatee's rightful share of the estate. • Declaration from the legatee confirming that he is a permanent resident in the E.C. and a beneficiary under the Will of the deceased. • Special application must be made to Customs.
New furniture, household items, presents and souvenirs		New furniture and household furniture are liable to payment of customs duty and VAT, if they have not been in the owner's previous use and possession for more than the periods given in item 1 "removal goods".	These articles, where included in a household removal are liable to payment of customs duty and VAT and must be separately declared on the import declaration (Form C3).
Works of Art, Antiques	Letter of antiquity issued by specialist antiques/art dealer certifying articles are over 100 years old. VAT 905 Reliefs' from VAT.	Duty free entry if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Works or art are forming a part of a bona fida household removal, or • Articles are over 100 years old. • These articles have been in the use and possession of the owner as described in item 1 (removal goods). • Are not for sale or other disposal. 	Antiques and works of art imported into the U.K. for resale are treated as a commercial import, and such goods would be subject to DUTY/VAT according to the circumstances.
Precious metal objects		Duty free entry is allowed on the same basis and under the same conditions as furniture and other articles.	No particular prescription for the importation of silverware within a household goods removal.
Motor-cars, motor-cycles and mopeds, power driven boats with or without engines and	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Customs form C104/A. • Customs form C104/A (vessels). • Document showing that the 	Duty free entry if, the vehicles/vessels will not be sold or otherwise disposed for 1 year after the date of importation.	Customs may require evidence that the owner of the vehicle/boat has lived abroad for 12 months or longer, e.g., copy of passport with date stamp

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
sailing boats	vehicle/vessel has been in the owner's use and possession abroad for the period described in item1 (removal goods) and must provide proof of ownership and use by original purchase invoice, insurance certificate etc., Garage and maintenance invoices etc. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If vehicle is less than 6 months old C384 Declaration. 		showing arrival in overseas country, or copy of lease/rental agreement on overseas residence. Latest information can be checked out on the Government internet : www.detr.gov.uk - look under Vehicle standards. General enquiries about importing vehicles and vehicle approval : e-mail : rvs1.dot@gtnet.gov.uk Technical enquiries about cars : e-mail : enquiries.vi@gtnet.gov.uk A certificate of conformity from the manufacturer of the vehicle should be obtained if the vehicle is less than 3 years old. Without the C of C the car will have to be tested (similar to MOT) at a Government approved centre to make sure it meets with EU regulations.
Caravans, trailers	Customs declaration (Form C3).	Duty free entry if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The owner is changing his residence to the U.K. They have been in the owner's use and possession abroad (see note section 1 removal goods). They are for his continued use and not for sale or other disposal.
Dangerous goods, firearms, ammunition and firearm parts	Valid firearm certificate issued to the owner by the police authorities controlling the area in which he intends to reside.	Importation prohibited: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explosives. Fireworks. Flick-knives. 	Firearm certificate must be presented at the Port of Entry when the shipment arrives. Inclusion of a firearm or ammunition usually results in Customs examination at Port of Entry. The importation of firearms and ammunition is NOT RECOMMENDED.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Realistic Imitation Firearms	A declaration from overseas clients on the C3s/ packing lists if any of these items are contained in their effects.	Importation is prohibited of realistic imitation firearms which are defined as “having an appearance that is so realistic as to make it indistinguishable, for all practical purposes from a real firearm” but is not a real firearm, a deactivated firearm or an antique. Certain types of imitations are excluded from the provisions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Those imitating weapons of early manufacture, viz before 1810 • Those below certain specified dimensions • Those manufactured in transparent material • Those manufactured in certain specified bright colours. 	It is asked that you notify HM Revenue and Customs in every instance of those goods that are or could meet a description covering any and all of the following descriptions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Firearms/Pistol/Revolvers/Rifles/Shotguns/guns • Air gun/pistol/rifle • Toy gun/ Toys • Airsoft/ Airsoft equipment • Paintball guns/ equipment • Historical/Battle/War/Cowboy/Tactical or Skirmishing – re-enactment or games equipment.
Narcotics, drugs, incitements		Importation prohibited.
Plants and vegetable products	Phytosanitary certificate.	Normal house plants are admitted duty free as part of a removal provided a certificate of freedom from Disease is available from the authorities of the country of origin of the removal (Phytosanitary certificate), otherwise importation prohibited.
Pets - Dogs, cats, birds		Import license is granted after the owner has made arrangements for the period of quarantine with a licensed Kennels. Exemption of quarantine is permitted for a variety of approved countries under the PETS (Pet Travel Scheme) including USA and Canada. Special rules apply for the scheme: It only applies to pet cats and dogs. It will only operate on certain sea, rail and air routes to England.	The importation of dogs and cats is permitted subject to the usual quarantine for 6 months in licensed and approved premises. 35 days for birds. A pet will only be able to enter the UK under the pilot scheme and be exempt from quarantine if it meets certain conditions: Fitted with a microchip. Vaccinated against rabies. Blood-tested. It must then wait for 6 months unless it was a UK resident and the sample was

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
			taken in the UK, with a successful result, before they left. The pet needs to be accompanied. An official PETS certificate certifying that these requirements have been met. This certificate can only be issued by a government-approved vet. An official certificate certifying that it has been treated against a tapeworm and ticks not less than 24 hours or more than 48 hours before embarking for the UK. Any vet can issue this certificate.
Pornographic books and magazines, "walkie-talkie" radios, certain feathers, furs, skins, tusks etc., of animals coming under the Protected Species Regulations		Importation prohibited.	